1964-65

The Elizabethan
Queen Elizabeth
Composite High School
Edmonton, Alberta

This, the fifth Edition of the Elizabethan, is dedicated to the graduating class, who in their years at Queen Elizabeth, have contributed to the development of the school.

In Memoriam

Shirley Chabun

William Ozechowski

Students of Queen Elizabeth Composite High

"But oh! fell death's untimely frost,
That nipt my flower sae early."

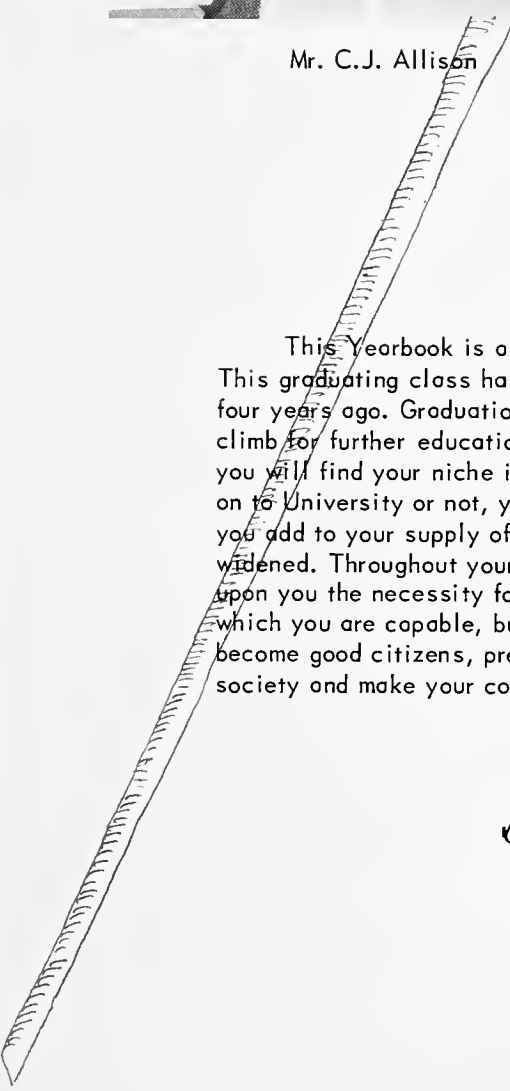

Robert Burns

Mr. C.J. Allison

Principal's Message

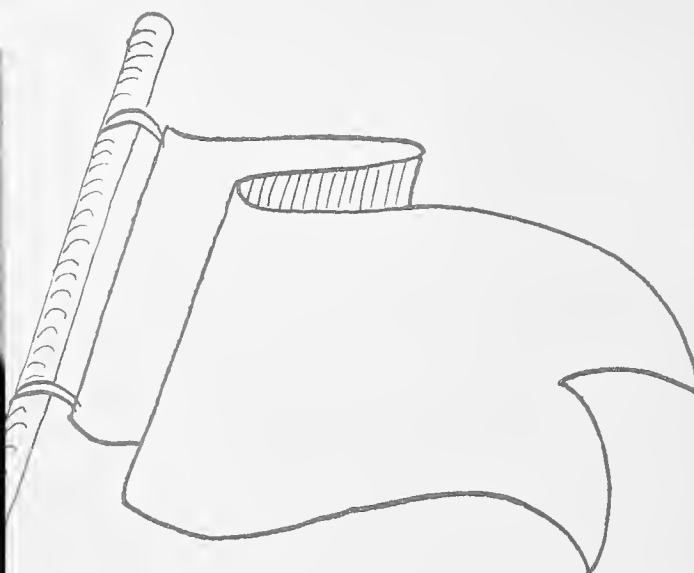

This Yearbook is again dedicated to the graduating class of 1964/65. This graduating class has more students than the whole school had a mere four years ago. Graduation from high school is but the first step in a long climb for further education. Some of you will go on to University, others of you will find your niche in business life immediately. But, whether you go on to University or not, your education never ceases. You learn new skills, you add to your supply of knowledge, and your knowledge of the world is widened. Throughout your high school career your teachers have impressed upon you the necessity for doing your best, achieving to the highest of which you are capable, but along with that has been a concern that you become good citizens, prepared and willing to take your place in today's society and make your contribution to it.

Chas. J. Allison

Terry Rawlyck

So quickly, it seems, another year at Queen Elizabeth draws to a close, and we can look back upon 1964-65 with a feeling of satisfaction and accomplishment.

This year, the Students' Union faced the problems of staggered lunch hours. This may have hampered student activities but it did little to dampen Queen E's enthusiasm and school spirit. Students gave, as always, their utmost support to all school activities, and with the return of football our school spirit rose to even greater heights to be carried on through the rest of the year.

I would like to thank the Students' Union Council and Executive for their hard work and support; Mr. Allison, Mr. Dale, the staff and the administration for their fine co-operation; and Mr. Bell for his wonderful guidance and assistance as staff advisor to the Students' Union.

To the Grad class, I wish happiness and success, wherever your futures may lead you.

I feel confident that the grade tens and elevens will lead Queen Elizabeth to greater heights and achievements and will uphold our proud and growing tradition.

To all students, may you live up to our motto: "Virile Parte" – to the utmost of our ability.

Terry Rawlyck

Editor's Message

Eddy Onusko

Another school year, the last for many of us, is drawing to a close. The staff of the Elizabethan hopes that this year has been successful for all. Memories abound in the minds of everyone. We have tried to gather an accurate account of events which have occurred throughout this school term, so that in the years to come you may leaf through these pages of suspended time and be reminded of the companionable days you spent as a high school student attending Queen Elizabeth Composite High.

There have been few, but vital changes during the year: The change from the six block saunter to a nine block rush (a change which gave many of us indigestible, split lunch periods). A change in Frosh Day procedure which freed the frightened frosh from the seniors and soon-to-be-mighty sophomores.

In this fifth edition, the staff has combined the traditions of earlier books along with a number of new ideas which we hope will prove successful and will in their turn become traditional. I wish to thank all those who helped in accumulating this yearbook and making it a success. And, I know the staff sincerely hopes that you, the reader, will gain as much pleasure in thumbing through its pages as they did in putting those pages together.

Eddy Onusko

YEARBOOK THEME

The Elizabethan Age was the most splendid period of English literature, scientific discovery and exploration. This era made immortal such renowned names as William Shakespeare, Christopher Marlowe, Francis Bacon and Sir Walter Raleigh. These men stood for the ambitious quest for worldly power, the search for knowledge and truth, and the pursuit of perfection.

So we too, students of Queen Elizabeth High School, must follow their example and strive toward the goal which they sought. Most of us will be apprehensive as we play our role in life; apprehensive as we work along strange paths, meet new responsibilities and unexpected trials. The task will be difficult; but the reward, great.

Shakespeare once said:

"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women, merely players"

We should give our best performance and thus have reason to be proud of our achievements.

Queen Elizabeth takes pride in having individuals who are ambitious workers and independent thinkers who live their motto: "To the utmost of one's ability."

Sports Review

Girls' Volleyball

Queen E. produced a winner in the form of the junior team. Mrs. Shapka coached the team to a first place standing of 11-1 in the thirteen team league. They then went to trounce Bonnie Doon and Ross Shep to win the Juanita Lawrence Trophy. Our congratulations to these girls.

The senior girls fought to a fourth place finish, losing only 4 of its eleven games. However, in the play-offs, the seniors lost to Bonnie Doon who then went on to win the trophy.

Girls' Basketball

It was a black year for the junior squad who progressed winless throughout the four game season. It is assuring to realize that what was lost in points was gained in enthusiasm. Their potential for next season is great.

The seniors fared well, winning three games in a row before losing their last game to Ross Shep.

Ralph Schienbein

Boys' Basketball

John Birzgalis led the Junior Knights as high scorer to five wins and six losses. In the play-offs we won over Austin O'Brien, but went to defeat by the Redmen. In Senior action Terry Rawlyck and Bob Turko set the pace of scoring with each scoring 102 points. Although they only won two games in twelve, the Knights lost four games by four points or less — proving the season was actually better than appears on the surface.

Ralph Schienbein

Cross-Country

Queen Elizabeth got off to a good start early in the season at the CAPHER cross country run at Kinsmen Park. Glen Easton won the 14 year old boys race (7:28) followed by Samson Burke, third (7:46), Dennis Chomin won the 16 year age group (10:46). Several other runners placed well, notably Don Cottrell who was third in the senior division.

Jay Anderson

Sports continued,

Football

Inter-school sports started this year with the all-new Knights. The squad started the season with a one and one record at the Jamboree on Sept. 11. During the course of the schedule, the seniors ran for two wins and five loses ending up 8th. The Juniors ended their year with one win, two ties, and four loses. For a raw team the results were not too bad and it may also be pointed out that Queen E. had the largest and best fan support.

Ralph Schienbein

SO THIS IS THE OTHER TEAM !

Leadership Is A Bay Tradition

Since 1670 the Hudson's Bay Company has been a driving force in the development of Canada. And although the romance of almost three centuries of fur trading and exploration still clings to this company, to millions of Canadians the Bay is the modern department store in their community — a leader in fashion.

Queen Elizabeth set a first this year. On February twenty-seventh we had our first Pioneer Day. Teachers, students – everyone came as his or her favourite pioneer. Costumes were from every era and of every description. The Students' Union provided the Roadside Singers as entertainment during the lunch hour. We hope this fine show of school spirit will continue as a tradition at Queen Elizabeth.

Mardi

Gras

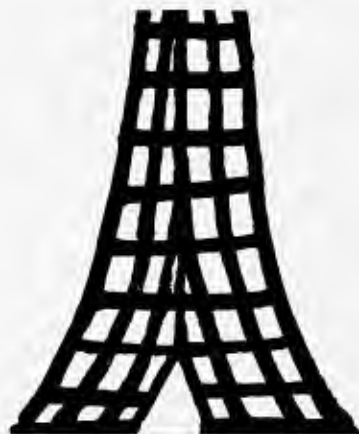

For the second time in three years, the Queen E. ice statue has placed first in the annual contest sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce during the Muk Luk Mardi Gras. Thanks to the hard work of the ice statue committee, our statues of Klondike Mike and a Jaycee proved to be what the judges wanted.

Capably directed by Miss Murphy, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" proved to be a huge success as our 1965 yearplay. Shirley Brodyk and Carol Bowker gave commendable performances in the lead roles of this delightful comedy. Wendy Albrecht and Noma Joan Martin each added their own special talents in the characterization of Mrs. Skinner. And Mickey Krikun as Otis Skinner proved himself capable of handling both of his wives. Romantic interest was provided by Don McLennan and Peter Eerkes who portrayed the dashing young men of Emily and Cornelia. With a strong supporting cast the play was termed a huge success – both artistically and financially.

TAT LEUNG CHAN

SILVANA MARZIALI

Canadian Adopt the Children Fund

Two children have been adopted this year by the United Nations Club. Through the generosity of teachers and students it was able to raise the required money for the support of these children. Six year old Tat Leung Chan from Hong Kong and eleven year old Silvana Marziali from Italy are the two who will benefit from our gift of kindness.

White Gifts

Once again Queen Elizabeth students rallied to the cause and brought white gifts for the needy families in our area. Used as admission to a sock-hop, the white gifts amounted to enough to supply eight families with essentials they might not otherwise have. Thank you Queen Elizabeth.

We, the staff of the yearbook, appreciate the work done by the Photo Club in taking and producing the group shots and candids appearing in this year's yearbook.

Steve Huk

Sincere thanks are extended by the Yearbook staff of 1964-65 to Mr. Norenberg and his Merchandising class for the work they did in conjunction with the Advertising Department.

William Smolak

"Please, sir, may we borrow your KEY?"

Everyday we confronted some poor unsuspecting teacher with this request. The usual reaction is a questioning look followed by a slight shrug, but we always got our key. (Which incidently opened the Yearbook Office). We'd like to thank all the teachers who were so co-operative in getting us in . . . now, how do you get out?

People who made our school known.
